

For Community & Parent Volunteers....

Volunteers In Partnership (VIP) Announces Volunteer Workshops for FALL 2015

Behavior Management Strategies

Friday, November 20th; 10-11:30 am.

Content:

- Key drivers of student behavior
- Principles of Positive Behavior Intervention and Support (PBIS)
- Strategies for volunteers to use with students to guide them toward productive behavior

Elementary School Literacy

Tuesday, December 1st; 2-3:30 pm.

Content:

- Key elements of literacy, how students develop skills, overview of the District's curriculum
- Strategies for volunteers to use with students

Elementary School Math

Thursday, December 3rd; 10-11:30 am.

Content:

- Guiding principles of the District's math instruction
- Specific activities to reinforce math concepts

Understanding Diversity, Its Impact on the Classroom:

Wednesday, December 9th; 10-noon

Content:

- Overview of latest state and district statistics
- Current research on how learning is impacted by cultural, racial, and socioeconomic factors

Workshops are free and presented by our district and/or partnership specialists.

For more information, or to make a reservation, please contact Mindy Potvin at the VIP office:

Phone: 763.504.6994

Email: mindy_potvin@rdale.org